Dear Mr. Ouyang:

The Office of Export Enforcement, Bureau of Export Administration. United States Department of Commerce (BXA), hereby charges that, as described below, Joe-Pin Ouyang (Ouyang) has violated the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 C. F.R. November 13, 2000)) (the Act).'

Facts constituting violations:

Charge 1

On or about October 30, 1997, Ouyang, in his capacity as President of Microtek International Development Systems Division, Inc. (Microtek DSD), attempted to export computer processor emulators from the United States through Taiwan to Iran, without obtaining the authorization required under Section 746.7 of the Regulations. During the time of the Act's lapse (August 20, 1994 through November 12, 2000), the President, through Executive Order 12924 (3 C.F.R., 1994 Comp. 917 (1995)), which had been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the most recent being that of August 3, 2000 (65 *Fed. Charge 2

In connection with the attempted export referenced in Charge 1 above. Ouyang knew or had reason to know that the computer processor emulators required a license. BXA alleges that, by selling or transferring commodities exported or to be exported from the United States with knowledge that a violation of the Act, the Regulations, or any order, license or authorization issued thereunder, has occurred, was about to occur, or was intended to occur, Ouyang violated Section 764.2(e) of the Regulations.

BXA alleges that Ouyang committed one violation each of Sections 764.2(a) and 764.2(e) of the Regulations for a total of two violations.

Accordingly, Ouyang is hereby notified that an administrative proceeding is instituted against him pursuant to Section 13(c) of the Act and Part 766 of the Regulations for the purpose of obtaining an order imposing administrative sanctions, including any or all of the following:

The maximum civil penalty allowed by law of $11,000 per violation (see Section 764.3(a)(1) of the Regulations and 15 C.F.R. § 6.4(a)(3) (2000));

Denial of export privileges (see Section 764.3(a)(2) of the Regulations); and/or Exclusion from practice before BXA (see Section 764.3(a)(3) of the Regulations).

If Ouyang fails to answer the charges contained in this letter within 30 days after being served with notice of issuance of this letter as provided in Section 766.6 of the Regulations, that failure will be treated as a default under Section 766.7.

Ouyang is further notified that he is entitled to an agency hearing on the record as provided by Section 13(c) of the Act and Section 766.6 of the Regulations, if a written demand for one is filed with his answer, to be represented by counsel, and to seek a consent settlement.

Pursuant to an Interagency Agreement between BXA and the U.S. Coast Guard, the U.S. Coast Guard is providing administrative law judge services, to the extent that such services are required under the Regulations, in connection with the matters set forth in this letter. Accordingly, Ouyang's answer should be filed with the U.S. Coast Guard ALJ Docketing Center, 40 S.
